AFTER last week's draw at home to Woking, who scored in injury time, Wycombe Wanderers will be anxious to get back on winning form tomorrow (Saturday) when they visit Sutton in the Rothmans Isthmian League.

But although almost certainly out of the title race themselves, Sutton will have a considerable bearing on the championship as they have still to meet Wycombe, Dagenham, and Ilford twice and also Enfield at home. Only last week, they spoilt Hendon's chances with a 2-1 win at Claremont Road — their first there for 13 years.

Wanderers will have to watch Sutton's twin spearhead attack of Ricky Kidd and Graham Dennis who have notched 52 goals between them this season. Kidd has 28 and Dennis 20 league and cup goals. In all Sutton have hit the net 53 times this season and are second highest scorers in Division One.

There are three new players at Gander Green Lane this season. Gary Cross and Barry Steer joined from Horsham while West Indian Tony White signed from Slough. White had a couple of games for Wycombe earlier in the season.

and beaten Hendon last week, Sutton will be an extremely difficult prospect for the Blues tomorrow but it is likely John Delaney will return to the side at centre-half after a two-week absence due to a shoulder injury. Graham Mackenzie may also drop out, leaving Dave Alexander and Howard Kennedy to contest the vacant midfield spot.

Wanderers have a doubt about Geoff Anthony who has an ulcerated throat, but should be able to field an almost full strength side.
